

2006 Jemrose Gloria's Gem Proprietary Blend

The 2006 Jemrose Gloria's Gem is comprised of two select barrels from the Cardiac Hill vineyard and the Two Sisters vineyard. The wine is a representation of the best that Jemrose has to offer. 50% new French oak. Bottled unfinned and unfiltered.

Winemaker's Notes:

This is one very voluptuous and sexy wine! Sensual aromas of raspberry, currents and Crème brulee with hints of savory smoked meats. A velvety texture in the mouth with deep penetrating flavors of sautéed cherries, chocolate and dark fruits. The expansive and elegant tannins round out the flavors and highlight a mocha, espresso finish that just doesn't quit.

Professional Reviews:

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

From Sonoma's Bennett Valley, Jemrose Vineyards has fashioned an outstanding blend of equal parts Syrah and Merlot, the Gloria's Gem. Revealing abundant aromas of mocha, black currants, cherries, forest floor, and underbrush, it is a medium to full bodied, fleshy effort displaying copious fruit and glycerin as well as nicely integrated tannins. Enjoy this wine over the next 7-8 years.

Wine Spectator

Delivers a firm, ripe, intense mix of pepper, bay leaf, spice and wild berry fruit that's tight, focused, intense and concentrated, ending with chewy tannins and a nice burst of fruit. Syrah and Merlot.
